2 SUSPECTS SEIZED AS POLICE SLAYERS

After an intensive hunt by the New York police, George C. (Stacks) Moore, 34 years old, of 317 West 136th Street, who is said to have a criminal record, and Raymond Haughton, alias James Brown, 24, of 741 Jennings Street, the Bronx, were seized in the Bronx early ths morning. They were questioned about the fatal shooting of Detective James Burke, member of the Police Honor Legion, during the hold-up of a liquor store at 1439 Webster Avenue, between 171st and 172d Streets, on Dec. 13.

According to District Attorney Samuel Foley, who led the questioning, Moore signed a written confession and implicated Haughton as his accomlice. Pending further questioning, both were not booked at an early hour this morning.

The police said Moore had two convictions against him on charges of assault. The police said also that Haughton had been released from the Elmira Reformatory in May, 1946, after having served a sentence for assault and robbery.

The New York Times
Published: February 8, 1947
Copyright © The New York Times