

OPINION LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Letters to the Editor — Feb. 5, 2021

By Post readers

February 4, 2021 | 6:45pm | Updated

Joanne Chesimard, aka Assata Shakur, a Black Liberation Army terrorist convicted of the 1973 execution-style murder of a NJ State Trooper Werner Foerster.

Getty Images

The Issue: City schools' use of quotes from Joanne Chesimard in a "Black Lives Matter at School" week.

A cop-killer is being honored by Black Lives Matter in our city schools ("Teaching hatred," Feb. 4).

Joanne Chesimard is a convicted murderer and nothing else. She murdered a New Jersey state trooper in cold blood for no reason other than he was a member of law enforcement. He had a family.

And the thing that gets me more is the city's teachers union endorsed the week-long program with no problem.

No wonder our kids behave the way they do with these liberal educators picking what they think is right to teach them. Don't parents pay attention to what their kids are learning?

If the story was turned around and the officer did the shooting, we would have had riots and looting until he was arrested.

Stop making these people heroes. They are criminals and should be treated as such.

John Wilde