FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NYC Municipal Labor Committee Chair Harry Nespoli issued the following statement:

The MLC today approved moving forward with a Medicare Advantage PPO agreement between the City of New York and Aetna with 79% of the votes cast in favor of the agreement. "We look forward to ensuring a robust quality plan for our retirees and their families," said Nespoli. "We will be vigilant in making sure that our retirees' welfare remains front and center in the administration of the plan."

The MLC is a consortium of 102 municipal unions representing some 385,000 active workers and 250,000 retirees, which together with their collective dependents, approximate 1.1 million covered lives.
